

Global Stability for Epidemiological Models with Multiple Stage-structure and Multiple Age-structure

Hongbin Guo¹ Suxia Zhang²

¹ University of Ottawa, Ottawa, Canada hongbin.guo@uottawa.ca

² Xi'an University of Technology, Xi'an, Xi'an 710048, China

zsuxia@163.com

A class of staged-progression models with multiple age of infection structures and/or age of latency structures, are formulated to describe infectious disease progression with long latency and/or infectious period. Global properties of these structured models are established using the Volterra-type Lyapunov functionals.