Varieties of Matchings in Graphs

Stephen T. Hedetniemi, Renu C. Laskar*, Clemson University

For a graph $G = (V, E)$, a matching M is a set of independent edges. The topic of matchings is well studied in graph theory. In this paper many varieties of matchings are discussed.