Bounding the trace function of a hypergraph

Farhad Shahrokhi*, University of North Texas

We derive a simple upper bound on the trace function of a hypergraph and apply it to the neighborhood systems of graphs. We study the connections to domination theory. Specifically, we derive lower bounds on the location domination and identification code numbers of graphs (trees are emphasized).

Keywords: Hypergraphs, Location domination and Identifying codes in graphs.