Unique watchman's walks

Danny Dyer*, Memorial University of Newfoundland; Jared Howell, Memorial University of Newfoundland, Grenfell Campus

A watchman's walk in a graph G is a minimum closed dominating walk. We consider the problem of enumerating the number of distinct watchman's walks in a graph, and give constructions to create graphs where the watchman's walk is unique.