

Patterns in Parking Functions

Lara Pudwell, Valparaiso University

In this talk, we will extend patterns in permutations to parking functions and consider parking functions that avoid permutations of length 3. A number of nice combinatorial sequences – related to trees, dissections of polygons, and more – arise in along the way, and this talk will highlight several bijective results.